

003.1

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS

School Board members have legal authority only during regular and special meetings, unless the Board by resolution directs one or more to act on its behalf on a specific item.

Members are expected to participate in meetings by discussion, deliberation, debate and voting.

Administrative action for members is legally not appropriate. All members, including the President are expected to participate fully in deliberation and voting.

APPROVED: BOARD OF EDUCATION

DATE: June 14, 1988

Revised: November 15, 2016