

DISTRICT MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS

1. Annual District Meeting
 - a. The date and time of the annual meeting shall be designated each year at the Board's reorganizational meeting. Such meeting may be scheduled on the third Tuesday of May.
 - b. The annual meeting provides a unique opportunity for all citizens to participate in educational planning. In many communities this is the last vestige of true democratic action in financial affairs at a local level.
 - c. The legal advertisement of the annual meeting is placed in the official newspaper of the District as required by law. "Popularized" budgets are made available at least seven (7) days prior to the annual meeting.
 - d. An agenda is prepared indicating the business to be transacted, and ballots are prepared for all voting to be done.
 - e. The annual meeting itself is primarily a "voting meeting." Public information meetings, at which discussion is held and questions are answered, will be held prior to the annual meeting.

2. Special District Meetings
 - a. Special district meetings may be called for special elections, special budgetary approvals, information dissemination, etc.
 - b. The special district meeting is announced by a legal advertisement placed in the official newspaper of the district as required by law.
