

511.2

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: PARTICIPATION BY STUDENTS WITH A DISABILITY

All students with a disability residing in the district shall have the opportunity to participate in district programs, including extra-curricular programs, and activities, which are available to all other students enrolled on the public schools of the district.

1. The Principal shall be made aware of students with a disability residing in the attendance area of the schools by the Chairperson of the Committee on Special Education. This list shall be sent in early September for the preceding school year and updated periodically throughout the school year.
2. Reasonable accommodation shall be made to ensure that all district programs and activities are available to students with a disability.
